Comments:

Please choose a number on the following chart to rate the student's English ability.

- 10. Absolute proficiency in English. Student is able to both understand and converse, dealing with abstract terms. Thinks in English.
- 9. Student possesses near fluency. Sentence structures are near perfect. Can understand and respond to difficult questions. English knowledge includes abstract terms. Will have no problem at all in communication when he/she arrives in the USA
- 8. English responses, although not perfect, come naturally. In other words, student responds evidently in English. Has good vocabulary and understands almost everything. Can respond intelligently, but needs practice.
- 7. Student can understand most conversations. Speaking ability is good, but needs practice. Student can go beyond basic responses and elaborate thoughts. Knows many words, but needs to think before responding.
- 6. Student understands and participates in basic English conversations, but needs practice. Vocabulary deals with everyday terms. Thinks quickly, but evident that he/she is translating. Gets lost when conversation departs from basics. Makes mistakes, but is understandable.
- 5. Student understands and participates in basic English conversations, but has to put forth a lot effort. Can respond in some sentence forms even if grammar and structure are not perfect.
- 4. Student evidently understands basic English sentences and is able to respond even if only in words. Grammar and sentence construction are poor but understandable. A few weeks of total immersion in English will improve his/her ability.
- 3. Student understands words, but not sentence thoughts. Speaking ability is limited to a few words
- 2. Student understands a few words, but has little or no ability to communicate. Student may also refuse to use English at all
- 1. Student cannot understand and knows little or no English.
