1. Welcome & Introductions

The meeting was called to order at 6:10 p.m. Superintendent Moser extended a welcome to all in attendance at the meeting.

2. Approval of April 7, 2011, AASA Meeting Minutes

Motion by Karen Ranson, second by Lorenzo Jackson, to approve the minutes as presented.

Minutes approved by consensus of the Committee.

3. Kemisha James, Program Representative from Central County Occupational Center (CCOC)

• Discuss Programs at CCOC and the Benefits to ESUHSD Students

Kemisha James made a presentation on the programs offered at the Central County Occupational Center (CCOC). CCOC offers over 30 occupational areas for students to choose from. It is a hands-on program. There are approximately 600 students per session (morning session and evening session). CCOC instructors help students develop their resumes and portfolios. Instructors also help students to connect with recruitment for employment. CCOC also provides its students a college fair.

4. Summer Programs

Summer is very limited for 2011. This year, there is a collection of partners for summer schools. Summer school sites will be Andrew Hill, James Lick, Mt. Pleasant, Overfelt and Yerba Buena. Summer classes offered at various site (not all summer school sites) are:

- English & Biology through Gear Up
- Summer core classes through the Century 21 grant
- Silicon Valley Education Foundation is sponsoring Step Up to Biology, which will be offered to ninth grade students. This program is paid by Applied Materials.
- A-Learn is sponsoring math classes to students in the ninth grade
- Summer Bridge Program will offer classes in algebra
- Opportunity classes offered to at-risk students

The Adult Education Program will offer make-up courses to non-graduation seniors who need ten units to graduate. They must see their counselor to apply for make-up summer school classes in the Adult Education Program.

Recruitment for summer school will be at the school sites.

5. Announcement

At the Board meeting of June 16, 2011, Mulugeta Habtegabriel and Sharon Jackson will make a presentation to the Board of Trustees regarding the Early Alert Program. Committee members are invited to attend the June 16 Board meeting.

6. Next Meeting Date

The next AASA meeting will be held on June 23, 2011, at 6:00 p.m. in the Board Room of the District Office.

7. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 7:25 p.m.
