4. Outreach Efforts and Strategies to Engage African American Students – Chantal Chatman, EVHS APED

A presentation on early intervention and strategies for success was made by Chantal Chatman and JoAnne Savage.

- Early Intervention JoAnne Savage, EVHS Lead Counselor
- Strategies for Success JoAnne Savage & Antoinette Battiste, EVHS AAPC Co-Chair

Intervention strategies begin early – the ninth grade level. The interventions utilized are school-wide.

Students are met with twice a year in large groups. Information is posted on School Loop and parents are encouraged to use School Loop. There are also individual parent and students conferences offered.

Seniors who are down credit, there is a heavy intervention schedule. The seniors are given a graduation inventory at the beginning of the school year.

Juniors are given a graduation inventory as part of the scheduling process in the Spring.

Counselors work in tandem with Advisors to identify high-risk students, students with 2 or more D's or F's at the first marking period.

Another intervention strategy is phone calls to parents and tutoring being offered to students.

Ninth grade approach:

The approach focuses on the role of the student and what classes are needed to graduate. The student sets goals and commits to progress.

5. Black Student Union Activities – Victoria Duran, BSU Advisor, and Antoinette Battiste

The BSU activities for 2011/2012 focus are to create safe spaces for dialoguing. Students bond and build a send of community to promote academic success. There is a mentoring, collaborating with others and leadership development.
